AMERICAN DERBY TRIALS.

Chicago is Derby mad, and such a mighty throng is preparing to go down to Washington Park Saturday that it is quite on the cards that even the enormous attendance of World's Fair year may be eclipsed. Yesterday morning enough people went to the track to view the trials of the Derby candidates to constitute a good attendance at other race tracks, and they were rewarded by the privilege of viewing some highly satisfactory work, Bonibert, His Eminence, Beau Gallant, Alfonso, Sadie S., Terminus and Sannazaro all going the full route, while others galloped shorter distances. The principal features of interest were these:

Bonibert, guided by Eullman and carrying 126 pounds, went the mile and a half in 2:35 $\frac{3}{4}$, the fractions being as follows: Eighth, 12 $\frac{1}{2}$ seconds; quarter, 24 $\frac{1}{2}$; three-eighths, 36 $\frac{1}{2}$; half, 48 $\frac{1}{2}$; five-eighths, 1:02; three-quarters, 1:15; seven-eighths, 1:28; mile, 1:42; mile and an eighth, 1:55 $\frac{1}{2}$; mile and a quarter, 2:09; mile and three-eighths, 2:22 $\frac{1}{2}$; mile and a half, 2:35 $\frac{3}{4}$. Bonibert worked alone and was not urged out and his trial was done in a way that was eminently satisfactory. His first mile was not so fast as that of His Eminence, but his last half was faster.

His Eminence did the fastest trial of the day, the fractions being as follows: 12, 24, 37, 48, 1:01, 1:13 $\frac{1}{2}$, 1:27 $\frac{1}{2}$, 1:40 $\frac{1}{2}$, 1:54 $\frac{1}{2}$, 2:08, 2:21 $\frac{1}{2}$, 2:35. Odom rode him and he carried 122 pounds. His performance was impressive and almost too fast to be beneficial to the colt. Beauty Book ran with him through the last seven furlongs.

Terminus was given the first trial of the morning, being brought out at 8 o'clock with a stable boy in the saddle. He covered the full route, his fractional time being as follows: 13, 26, 39, 51, 1:04, 1:18 $\frac{1}{2}$, 1:32 $\frac{1}{2}$, 1:45, 1:59, 2:12 $\frac{1}{2}$, 2:26 $\frac{1}{2}$, 2:39 $\frac{1}{2}$. The trial was said to be satisfactory to his stable connections, he not being a willing work horse and showing best in his races.

Sannazaro, ridden by a stable boy, covered the route in 2:38. The colt Rasselas, ridden by J. Boland, traveled with him through the last half. The fractions were 13 $\frac{1}{2}$, 27, 40 $\frac{1}{2}$, 52 $\frac{1}{2}$, 1:07, 1:20, 1:33, 1:46, 1:59, 2:12, 2:25 $\frac{1}{2}$, 2:38. His work did not impress onlookers greatly, but he showed in the St. Louis Derby that he can go the route much faster. When Rasselas joined him he ran perceptibly faster.

Beau Gallant, with 140 pounds of stable boy up, did a good mile and a half, his fractions being reeled off as follows: One-eighth, 12 $\frac{1}{2}$; one-quarter, 25 $\frac{1}{2}$; three-eighths, 37 $\frac{1}{2}$; half, 48 $\frac{1}{2}$; five-eighths, 1:01 $\frac{1}{2}$; three-quarters, 1:14 $\frac{1}{2}$; seven-eighths, 1:27 $\frac{1}{2}$; mile, 1:41 $\frac{1}{2}$; mile and a quarter, 2:09; mile and a half, 2:36. It was a good workout, but the Washington Park rail birds are not seriously considering Beau Gallant. They say he is a good horse in front, but a weak one behind. Handsome is as handsome does, however, and the only victor over Commando may surprise his detractors.

Alfonso, with H. Shields and about 125 pounds up, covered the Derby distance in 2:39 $\frac{1}{2}$, his fractions being: Quarter, 25 $\frac{1}{2}$ seconds; half, 49 $\frac{1}{2}$; three-quarters, 1:15 $\frac{1}{2}$; mile, 1:43 $\frac{1}{2}$; mile and a quarter, 2:11 $\frac{1}{2}$; mile and a half, 2:39 $\frac{1}{2}$. He is said to be a great mud horse.

Sadie S. covered the mile and a half in 2:40 and went on to a mile and five-eighths in 2:56, sulking and protesting at all stages. Her owners say she will not work alone and will only put forth her best efforts when under the excitement of actual racing.

Silverdale did six furlongs in 1:17 and was subsequently sent a mile and a quarter in 2:12 $\frac{1}{2}$, pulling up sound and good.

The most sensational recent trial in connection with the Derby was that of The Parader at Sheepshead Bay Wednesday. The reported features were the mile in 1:41 $\frac{1}{2}$ and the full distance in 2:33 $\frac{1}{2}$. This is a startling performance. He left for Chicago yesterday and will arrive at Washington Park this evening. Jockey Joe Piggott comes along to ride him.

Jockey N. Turner, fresh from England, has been engaged to ride Bonibert. This lets Bullman out so far as Bonibert is concerned and he has, it is reported, been engaged to ride Silverdale. Mr. Schorr was negotiating for the services of T. Burns, but took Bullman when he found he had the chance. It is said that L. Smith has been engaged to ride Sadie S., but it is doubtful if he is eligible to ride here. Mitchell is coming on to ride Alfonso. Charley Littlefield is reported to have changed his mind about coming out with Water Color and Sweet Lavender.

R. Bradley, with Robert Waddell, Boney Boy and a full sister to the former, arrived at the track yesterday, and the doughty son of Aloha will go to the post if he does not break a leg betwixt now and Saturday. Sam Hildreth's big stable also arrived yesterday.

Lady Schorr was given a work-out at Harlem yesterday and pulled up slightly lame, but Trainer Walker said she soon walked out of it and apprehends no serious consequences.

NOTES OF THE TURF.

The four-year-old Celeritas, formerly owned and raced by Pat Dunne, was killed at Chilli-cothe June 4 while being given a trial preliminary to being shipped to Newport. He struck against the fence, which broke, and one of the palings pierced the abdomen. James Conley, the jockey who was riding him, was seriously injured. Celeritas was being fitted for a killing at the Newport track.

But little has been done so far with Madden and Whitney's $20,000 Hanover-Correction colt Yankee. He is such a big colt and growing so steadily that it is not probable he will start until late in the season, and he may even be saved until next season before being sent to the post.

It is announced from Ballston that Spencer Trask has sold to August Belmont eight acres of land in Saratoga adjoining the track of the Saratoga Racing Association. The consideration was $4,000. This land will probably be added to the race track.

T. H. Murphy, Chicago. When Chacornac won the Futurity he ran as the property of J. R. & F. P. Keene, being coupled with Doublet and Virginia Earle. It was reported at the time that the Keenes had purchased him the day before the race for $30,000.

Mr. Edward Tipton of the Fasig-Tipton Co., accompanied by auctioneer Wm. Easton, is in the city for the purpose of conducting the sale of the Fairview, Millbrook and Fleetwood yearlings at the Union Stock Yards tonight.

The Rancho del Paso was truly a record-breaker. Two hundred and one yearlings were sold for $233,935, an average of $1,163, a remarkable average in consideration of the great number of youngsters offered.

J. P. Striker, Detroit, Mich.: The bet should be refunded unless it was made at some rate agreed upon between yourselves. There was no public betting at the track, and all bets abroad based on track quotations are off.

Standing is given up as hopelessly broken down, and it is reported that he will join the array of stallions at Melbourne Stud.

Commando took his first good exercise Tuesday since his short let-up, going an easy mile in 1:54 $\frac{1}{2}$ in good style.

Winner—B. f. by Bathampton—Trade Wind. Went to post at 2:30. At post 6 minutes. Start good. Won driving; second handily. Pleasant Sail finished fast after making up a lot of ground and was probably best at the weights. Malden put up a fast and game effort. Tinge closed a big gap. Bounteous appeared to be a contender at the eighth post but was crowded out at the end. Snark is improving. Hengist had a poor chance with his start and rider. Bold Knight was used up in helping to force the pace. Military, on the extreme outside of six horses, ran a phenomenally fast half. Dr. Riddle closed a big gap. Venturo and His Royal Highness quit early.

Ivory Bells stuck to her work better than usual. Zyra closed a big gap and was eased up at the end. Legation was very green and had been tried the distance in 1:00.

Went to post at 4:05. At post 10 minutes. Start straggling. Won easily; second the same.

Water Color was best, was right there for the first half and came away in the stretch wrth a brilliant burst of speed. Gold Heels put up an extremely fast and game race, but lacked seasoning.

The Puritan, Dublin and Bedeck had an exciting three-cornered contest between them from start to finish for show honors. Demurrer forced the terrific pace to the stretch and then retired a badly beaten horse. He was undoubtedly ridden with bad judgment.

TO NIGHT'S THOROUGHBRED SALE.

To night at eight o'clock at the Dexter Park Horse Exchange, Union Stock Yards, the Fasig-Tipton Company will sell fifty choice bred yearlings from the Fairview and Millbrook Studs. They are the progeny of such famous sires as St. Blaies, Exile, Cheviot, Miser, Rey del Rey, Phoenix, Pessarra, Top Gallant, King Eric, Charade, Fabulous and Pirate of Penzance and are to be sold without reserve.

Western owners will find this a rare opportunity to secure the best of yearlings without having to go east to buy.

AMERICAN THOROUGHBREDS.

Truly this is a year when the eagle screams and Old Glory waves on high! Our commerce is greater than ever, our national prosperity beyond the limit, and our thoroughbred horses, apparently, beyond compare.

Following right on after the performances of the great Commando, and the good Conroy, and the speedy The Parader, as typical three-year-old giants, comes the victory of an American owner in the English Derby for the second time in its history. An English horse, he is practi-

Winner—Ch. c, by St. Maxim—Favorite.
Went to post at 4:45. At post 2 minutes. Start good. Won cleverly; second easily. Dark Secret was well ridden, finished gamely at the end, and was best. Prophetic seemed a sure winner a farlong out, but tired and succumbed to the winner's challenge at the end. Wild Oats was lucky to be third. James Fitz closed strongly under a poor ride. Dragoman displayed a good burst of speed and hung on well, and should improve greatly through this race. Far Cry appeared hopelessly out of the race from the start, but under a good ride was gaining over those immediately in front and should have been easy third.
Dark Secret, show, out. Prophetic, show, 1 to 2. Wild Oats, show, 7 to 5.

26151 SIXTH RACE—1 1-16 Miles. (On Turf.) $900 added. 3-year-olds and upward.

Winner—B. c, by Knight of Ellerslie—Lizzie Pickwick.
Went to post at 5:10. At post 1 minute. Start good. Won driving; second easily. It was a close thing between All Green and The Musketeer, but O'Connor's strong finish won out for his mount. Farrell's colt, however, was probably short. Double Dummy was right there nearly throughout.

ally owned by an American, leased by him for a term of years at a fabulous sum, trained and ridden by Americans, and the quality of his opponents is shown by the new record established for the race. In the single preceding American victory, twenty years ago, the horse was American, but the trainer and jockey English.

In the Oaks victory, however, is found a genuine and full triumph for American breeding and training methods. The good filly was bred and born in this country, her sire an American horse, pure and simple, trained and ridden by Americans. The only English item is her owner, long enough in this country, and sufficiently closely identified with this country to be considered as good an American as his son, who, if we mistake not, was born here.

These victories abroad and the good performances of the three-year-olds at home demonstrate that our stock selection and breeding methods are all right, and that we know both how to train horses and how to ride them. Hitherto the tide of high class blooded stock has rolled almost without exception from east to west, but in the face of recent events in the blue ribbon circles at home and abroad it will not be surprising to see before long somewhat of a change, and the world coming to these shores for thoroughbreds as it has for the past fifteen years, for trotters.—Spirit of the Times.

SATURDAY AT WASHINGTON PARK.

8 TO 20 TO 1 GOOD THING. Here is one that has worked

CHICAGO, FRIDAY, JUNE 21, 1901.

GOSSIP OF THE TURF.

Horses are peculiar pieces of property. This is demonstrated particularly in the case of Water Color, the grand black horse trained by Charles Littlefield, Jr. Water Color was either injured or taken sick when a youngster during his trip from California to New York. He was so poorly off that he was not even led into the ring for sale, but passed over to Littlefield to do the best that he could with him. It was believed that he would pass up to horse heaven at a very early stage. To the New Jersey farmer went Water Color, and, instead of dying, began to improve under Littlefield's care. It is an old story how he was introduced as a two-year-old, winning race after race, and voted the handsomest and most gentlemanly youngster of the year. Practically a gift horse, for Mackay did not want to ship him back to California, he is now valued at several thousand dollars. Elizabeth M. is another with a like history, and there have been many others. These cases demonstrate plainly that it is not always the highest priced horse that turns out the best, but that the element of luck enters very largely into the argument. Water Color's history brings to mind that all of Littlefield's string are to be placed under the hammer next week, and among them the celebrated black that was so sick as a yearling that no one wanted him.—Exchange.

A peculiar misunderstanding took place between John Coleman, the bookmaker, and Eddie Graney in the last race in California recently. Graney went up to Coleman's block to bet him $50 on Jim McCleevy, in which horse Eddie is interested. When the race was run it was found that the bet had been recorded on the sheet $50 on Rio Chico. After Graney bet him on Rio Chico Coleman concluded McCleevy would not be at his best and took in all the McCleevy money in sight. The result was that he lost $800 on McCleevy that he otherwise would not have lost, so it was a case of kick all around.

THE RANCHO DEL PASO SALE.

The sale of yearlings from the Rancho del Paso stud was continued Tuesday in the Fasig-Tipton Company's paddock opposite Sheephead Bay track before the races began. The attendance was as large as on the previous three days, and when the best of the stock was offered they brought forth keen competition and again big prices. This sale has resulted in a big change in the opinion of owners who have fought shy of fillies when led into the ring, for they have brought bigger prices than the colts. Tuesday saw another filly fetching the top figure. The daughter of St. Gatien—Pansa, a sister in blood to Wood Violet, was such a grand looker that several well-known turfmen were anxious to secure her. W. C. Whitney was the successful bidder, paying $5,000 for her. The filly by Goldfinch—Queen Bess was in demand, as Alfred Hennen Morris had to bid $4,100 for her. She is half sister to Kenilworth and other good ones. Summary of Tuesday's sale:

Winner—Ch. c, by Bermuda—Catherine of Navarre. Went to post at 3:00. At post 18 minutes. Start poor. Won easily; second the same. The bad start spoiled the race. Phonolite, Potheen and Gallagher, the favorites, were almost left at the post. Terra Firma, who seems to be a good colt, was away well and had clear sailing. Oakling, the only contender except Royal Athlete, fell on the turn. Phonolite and Gallagher ran good races from where they got off and closed strong.

Scratched—26135 Ben Hempstead, 108. Overweights—Broodler, 3 pounds; Oakling, 2. Terra Firma, show, 4 to 5. Royal Athlete, show, 4 to 5. Phonolite, show, 2 to 1. Gallagher, show, out.

His last race was a bad one, Propeller beating him off in 1:42 for a mile on a similar track. South Breeze ran an improved race. Propeller ran to his mark. Blink stopped as if short. Phosphorus was kicked at the post by Blenheim. He ran a good race notwithstanding. Laura's First was handicapped by Higgins, and would have done better with a better boy. Ceylon showed a good deal of speed. Blenheim was on his bad behavior and snuked all the way.

Went to post at 3:45. At post 4 minutes. Start good. The first four were driving. Rose of Red wore down Annie A. B. on the far turn, but had to be shaken up and ridden out in the last eighth. Debenture closed a big gap and came strong in the stretch. Annie A. B. was out to the last ounce. Corinne C. finished strongly and would have been second in a few more jumps. Dr. Worth was knocked down and out of it just after passing the half mile ground.
